

“Tinig” is the meaning of “Voice” in Tagalog. The voice came out from Grace Nono has an incredible singing voice you ever heard. There is peace when you hear her voice. Seemingly, you feel hypnotized and feel calm from every struggle you would have. Her voice is resonant on the land and arouses to people’s hearts. GRACE NONO - a Filipina diva, was invited to perform in the opening of Aichi World Expo in 2005 is going on tour as the main artist of “TINIG” the first production produced by Sinag Arts Foundation to Europe, Japan, and South East Asia in 2008.

TINIG was presented by Sinag Arts in Manila, Philippines last May 27 as a production piece that was created during the 3 weeks Lighting Workshops facilitated by Shoko Matsumoto and also served as a Preview for the main performance scheduled in June 2, 2007 at the Sinag Arts Studio. The Show was very successful, attended by different embassies and diplomats, Japanese friends, theater icons, among others.

“Grace Nono is mystical” was reviewed by Philippine and Japanese Press. She is an award-winning Philippine world music artist-producer, teacher-researcher and cultural worker-administrator has performed in world music festival and conferences in the United Kingdom, Germany, France, Monaco, Spain, the United States, India, China, Japan, Thailand, Myanmar and Vietnam. With all her endeavors involved in cultural regeneration and holistic development initiatives, she was supported by different prestigious institutions such as UNESCO, British Council, the Ford Foundation, the Toyota Foundation, Cultural Center of the Philippines and the National Commission for Culture and Arts. Indeed, Grace Nono is a person with unmeasurable ability.

Likewise, SINAG ARTS FOUNDATION, a non-stock non profit technical Training Center for Theater – the First Studio in Asia established in July 1998. While Sinag Arts aims is to translate, transfer and exchange knowledge of artistic skills and technologies, its endeavors is to uplift the level of technical theater and related media in the Philippines and the rest of Asia.

It is in this regard that to achieve these goals, Sinag Arts plans to tour “TINIG” with Grace Nono in different countries specifically on August 2008 (Europe); Mid September – October (Japan ); and Mid October – November 2009.

Should you interested to be part of this endeavor, we would like to invite you to SPONSOR the production and bring “TINIG” (voice) in your country.

For further inquiries, please contact the following Sinag Arts offices:

MANILA PHILIPPINES: Naomi “Shoko” Matsumoto / Del Cayetano
TEL: 632-5313491 / FAX: 632 531 9524
Email address: admin@sinag-arts.org
Website: www.sinag-arts.org
Address: 664 San Ignacio St.
Barangay Plainview
Mandaluyong City, Philippines

TOKYO, JAPAN: Ayako Fukunaga
Tel and Fax: 813 -3921-4309
Email address: nayac@mc.point.ne.jp
Address: Sinag Arts Foundation Tokyo office
8-22-5-205 Shakujidai, Nerima-Ku,
Tokyo, JAPAN